STELLENBOSCH VILLAGE MUSEUM

The history of Stellenbosch is portrayed in a novel way at the Stellenbosch Village Museum.

Instead of rooms full of photos and remnants of yesteryear, this museum has chosen to represent the architectural and historical context of the town in four different houses, each with its own design, look and feel. The houses, their interiors and their gardens have been wonderfully restored, furnished, planted, and decorated to illustrate the particular style and taste of the time.

CAPE POINT & PENINSULA TOURS

Travel along the incredibly scenic Table Mountain chain stretching from Signal Hill in the North to Cape Point in the South, and behold the majesty of the seas and coastline of the peninsula. Get to visit a land-based penguin colony at Boulders Beach and experience the penguins' mannerisms at close range.

Private tours can be pre-scheduled by Concierge.

WHALE WATCHING

South Africa may be known for its Big Five, but the marine wildlife is just as impressive. Every year, Southern Right Whales take a vacation in Cape waters, treating Cape Town locals to a display of breaching, fluking, spouting, and spy-hopping. Enjoy a day out whale watching with the family in the beautiful town of Hermanus.

DYLAN LEWIS SCULPTURE GARDEN

Located between two worlds, one wild and one tamed, the Dylan Lewis Sculpture Garden borders the manicured suburbs of Stellenbosch and a rugged mountain wilderness where leopard still roam. In this garden of private myth, the artist explores the Jungian notion of 'the wilderness within'. More than 60 sculptures constituting a comprehensive record of his artistic development thus far have been carefully sited along 4km of paths.

Visit the garden leisurely or by guided tours.
